HEAD COACH ROB DAUM

University Record:	345-79-32 (10 seasons)
Aeros Record:	50-27-3 (2nd season)
Playoff Record:	4-4 (1 season)

Rob Daum is in his second season as Houston's head coach, after leading the Aeros to a 50-24-3-3 mark in his inaugural campaign. Daum replaced Todd McLellan, who left the Aeros after four seasons to become assistant coach for the NHL's Detroit Red Wings in July 2006.

Daum, 48 (1/19/58), spent 10 seasons behind the bench at the University of Alberta, where the Churchbridge, Sask, native led the Golden Bears to an impressive 345-79-32 overall record (.792 percentage) and a 218-37-25 conference mark (.823). Since 2000-01, Alberta's conference record is a whopping 120-9-11 (.896 percentage).

Alberta qualified for the playoffs in each of Daum's 10 seasons, and it qualified for the CIS National Championship every year since 1996-97. Daum coached the Golden Bears to three national titles, including back-to-back wins in 1999-2000, and a championship in 2005. The Bears won six Canada West titles under Daum.

Daum was named CIS Coach of the Year in 2000-01 and 2003-04, and Canada West Coach of the Year five times. He has coached 58 Canada West All-Stars, including 25 First-Team All-Stars, and he's coached five Canada West MVP's in 10 seasons. The most recent one was former Aero Ryan Wade.

Daum played two-plus seasons for the Golden Bears from 1979-1982, including the 1979-80 CIS University Cup championship team. Prior to joining the Golden Bears, Daum played one season of college hockey with the Camrose Lutheran College Vikings (now Augustana University College). He was the Alberta Colleges Athletic Conference Rookie of the Year.

Daum was head coach at WHL Lethbridge from 1993-95, and was also an assistant with WHL Swift Current prior to McLellan's arrival with the Broncos. Daum was both a head coach and an assistant coach with the WHL's Prince Albert Raiders.

Daum guided Team Canada, including several of his own Golden Bears players, to a Bronze Medal at the January 2003 World University Games in Tarvisio, Italy.

He and his wife, Carol, have a 16-year-old son Evan and twin daughters Carly and Lauren, 14.

ASSISTANT COACH/ASSISTANT GM MATT SHAW

Matt Shaw is in his seventh season as an assistant coach with the Aeros, having come to Houston as an assistant to then-head coach Dave Barr in 2001. Shaw's primary responsibility for Rob Daum is working with the defense. Shaw filled in for the ill Todd McLellan for several games in 2003-04. Prior to coming to Houston, Shaw spent the 1999-00 season as head coach for the Quad City Mallards in the United Hockey League. He led the team to a sparkling 53-16-5 regular season mark. The Mallards fell to Flint in the Colonial Cup finals. He has also been head coach with the Mobile Mysticks of the ECHL. Shaw has worked as an assistant coach at Quad City and the Chicago Wolves. He began his coaching career with his Alma Mater, Colorado College beginning in 1989. He and his wife Carolyn have two children – daughter Clare and son Hayden.
